Do Students Enjoy Research?

First Years! Have you changed?

We asked you to take the Freshman Research Practices Survey when you first arrived. We learned a lot in September and now we want to know: Is it still true?

This is your last chance to take the Freshman Research Practices Survey again! Look for the link in your email and follow it before May 14th.

To thank you for your participation, you will be entered into a drawing for one of several $50 gift certificates (some are for Target, some for Amazon).

Dear Seniors,

You've spent all year working on your thesis. Have you considered what you'll do with it now?

We're developing a new digital collection to preserve the intellectual achievements of our college community (a.k.a. an Institutional Repository). Whether you burn it, frame it, or distribute one to each of your 100 closest friends and relatives, let us ensure its everlasting life as an important piece of Swarthmore College history.

To participate, or for more info, contact Kate Carter via any of a multitude of mediums: kcarter2, ext. 8485, or just drop by McCabe 110.

Love,

The Library
